

LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

VOLUME XX.

AGRICULTURAL. Buckeye Mower.

FARMERS.

PLEASE CALL AND EXAMINE THE CELEbrated Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

Which has proved itself, in five years' trial by the farmers of Kentucky and Indiana, to give better satisfaction and have more points of excellence in it than all other

REAPERS AND MOWERS COMBINED.
WARRANTY.

We warrant these Machines to be well made of good materials, simple, durable, and easy of draft, and will stand the wear and tear of a hard day's work.

The Combined Reaper will cut from 12 to 15 acres and the Mower from 6 to 10 acres of grass per day—but doing both in one day.

The Mower will cut lodged grass or lodged and wet clover without clogging.

CASH PRICES.

Combined Reaper and Mower. $180.
Single Reaper. $160.
Large size Mower. $140.
Small size Mower. $120.

Notice.

We have but a limited number of Machines to supply this market, and if you wish to secure one, call us and we will be pleased to do so.

For a full description of the various kinds of them, furnished and sent you on application.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.,
Sole Agents for Kentucky.

SWEEPSTAKES

SEPARATOR & CLEANER.

We have been selling this Machine for three seasons, and they have given complete satisfaction in every instance. We warrant the durability and finish, they exceed any Separator in the market. We warrant every Machine to give satisfaction.

For a full description of the Machine, always on hand.

MESSES. PITKIN & CO., Louisville, Ky. Gentlemen—We have a Separator and Cleaner each of us having purchased one from you last season.
We have been using them with great satisfaction, and Machines operating in this State for the last 15 years, and we have no doubt of their durability, capacity and value. It will thresh more wheat, barley or oats in a given time than any other separator, and will do it with less labor. We warrant every Machine to give satisfaction.

For a full description of the Machine, always on hand.

L. L. DODD,
J. H. HARDIN,
J. L. FICKLIN.

COOK'S PATENT

EVAPORATOR.

We have the EXCLUSIVE CONTROL of this Evaporator for the State of Kentucky, and in Indiana, bordering on it. Persons desiring to purchase and have it sent for a circular giving full descriptions.

CASH PRICE.

No. 2 complete. $100.
No. 3 complete. $120.
No. 4 complete. $150.

SUGAR CANE MILLS.

We are sellers with our Evaporator, the "Victor Cane Mill," which stands far ahead of any other Mill for strength, durability, capacity, &c., & is built on a different principle from any other, and can be easily repaired. Call and examine, and get a descriptive catalogue.

CASH PRICE.

No. 1 Victor, complete. $20.
No. 2 Victor, complete. $30.
No. 3 Victor, complete. $40.
No. 4 Victor, complete. $50.

HORSE HAY RAKE.

We have the improved STEEL TOOTH RAKE, running on wheels, and the revolving Rake. We consider ours the best, and the only Rake that we have ever been looking for. The rake meadows and stubble fields especially well. Call and see them.

Steel Rake. $35.
Revolving 14 Square Feet.
Revolving 16 Square Feet.
Revolving 18 Square Feet.

Horse Hay Fork.

We have the control of Kentucky for the GLAIDING'S HORSE FITCHFIRE. We consider ours the best, and the only Horse Fitchfire that we have ever been looking for. Every hay raker should, by all means, have one. Buy no other kind but Glaiding's. It was made by hand. Call and see them.
Price, complete with 60 feet of rope. $15.
Agents wanted.

SHERMAN'S IMPROVED

CLOTHES WRINGER

Has been pronounced by hundreds who have tested it to be the very best Wringer in this market.

1st. Because it is so simple in construction that it cannot be easily tampered with.

2d. There is no wood about it to swell, shrink or decay.

3d. They are so compact that it is not necessary to remove the wringer from the machine to clean it.

4th. It sits so tight on the tub that it is much less likely to leak.

5th. It is so simple that a child ten years old can operate it.

6th. It needs no adjusting, except for the largest articles, as there is no necessity for starting the set-screws to make it fit.

7th. It saves time, labor, clothes and money. It is perfectly simple even in every part of the machine.

We sell this Wringer guaranteeing it to perform the work it is intended for, and we do not ask the purchaser to keep them.

Price, complete. $1.00.

Agents wanted all over this State.

NOTICE.

In addition to articles above we keep a general assortment of—

Agricultural Implements & Seeds, Cunning's Patent Cutting Boxes,

Sanford's Patent Cutting Boxes,
Virginia Corn Shellers,

Buckeye Corn Shellers,

Cultivator, Cultivator,

Plow Cast and Steel,

Grain Cradles and Scythes,

Shovels, Hoes, Spades, Forks, &c.

PITKIN, WIARD & CO.,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Daily Democrat.

TERMS OF THE DAILY DEMOCRAT TO THE COUNTRY.

ONE YEAR. $7.00
SIX MONTHS. 4.00
ONE MONTH. 75

Notice to Mail Subscribers.

Subscribers are advised with a note of the date of their subscription will receive ten days in advance of the time and again with a second notice on the day the last copy paid for is sent. This will enable all persons to keep the run of their accounts, and to renew in time not to miss an issue of the paper.

A PAPER EVERY DAY IN THE WEEK.

A NEW FEATURE.

THE GROWING DEMAND FOR NEWS.

We will hereafter publish the Louisville Democrat every day in the week. Heretofore the Democrat has omitted Monday, and from Tuesday morning to Sunday, inclusive, made our week's issue. Such is the growing demand for the latest news that the gap from Sunday morning to Tuesday morning is too great, and our readers and patrons grow impatient for a paper. To supply this need, we shall hereafter make the Sunday Democrat a paper of more general variety and interest to all classes and make the Monday issue the business medium of the public. The Sunday Democrat we shall endeavor to make a well-known name for itself, and the paper will be a liquor store, had it required, and paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no
permits would be granted to any one else.
Then a Mr. Hodges, a rebel in arms, but the protection of the Convention, urged this
action of that party, and the paper
was to be a liquor store, had it required, and
paid the rent on it; General Butler said
it for "military purposes." The military
purposes were shown a week later, when a Boston
firm took the house as a liquor store. Another
was confined to persons from Boston, as no permits would be

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

OFFICE—

South side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

W. E. HUGHES, State Printer.

TUESDAY, MAY 17, 1864.

CITY NEWS.

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty cents per week.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be seventy-five cents per month, or four dollars for six months, or seven dollars per year—always in advance.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.

Thirteenth Day's Proceedings.

The Jefferson Circuit Court, pursuant to adjournment, met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Hon. P. B. Muir on the bench.

The only business before the court was the motion for a new trial in the case of Robert Smith, convicted of murder. The argument in the case occupied the entire day and the decision of the court will be rendered to-day. We understand that the persons convicted will be sentenced to-day, and that they will be sent to the penitentiary to-morrow.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, May 16.—John and Peter, slaves of James Malone; Alex, slave of M. Churchill; Wm. and Back (F. m. c.); Harry, slave of Talbot; George Bowles (F. m. c.)—all gaming on Sunday; the case as to George Bowles continued; the balances discharged.

F. Grady, drunk and disorderly conduct and abusing his wife; continued.

Chas. Johnson, disorderly conduct and assaulting a lady; ball in $200 for six months.

Reed Cameron, W. Hultz, James Cooney, D. W. S. Rawson, Jacob Rebermecker and W. E. Perry, all drunk, were prosecuted under the new ordinance for driving their hacks without a license and without a badge; convicted until Thursday.

Wm. Shields, Rock Summers and John Ward, drunk and disorderly; Shields and Ward fined $10 each, and Summers $10.

Jno. Garrity and Wm. Kennedy, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; fined $5 each.

Joe Rankin, a soldier, drunkenness and disorderly conduct; sent to the Provost Marshal.

Jas. Fitzgerald, assaulting Angus Berry; discharged.

Willis Hardin, a slave, and Sallie Clark, F. w. c., disorderly conduct; Sallie discharged, and Willis ordered to receive ten stripes.

Jos. Kauffman, stealing an overcoat from B. F. Avery, worth over $4; discharged, as it was not the coat.

Geo. Pole and Thomas Nantz, drunk and disorderly conduct; fined $5 each.

Mrs. Riddle, drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Pat Carroll, drunk, &c.; $100 to answer.

Winfred Confer, drunk, &c.; fined $5.

Wm. Griggs, a free negro, and Mary, a white woman, who claims to be his wife, lawfully married in Ohio, and live in this city as man and wife; $100 to answer a misdemeanor, and case continued till Saturday.

Mary Winter and Ann Smith, drunk, &c.; fined $3 each.

Henrietta, Ann, Cordelia, Jackson, James and George, all slaves belonging to different citizens, were charged with disorderly conduct; discharged.

Elizabeth McCrory, disorderly conduct.

Margaret Winn, stealing clothing worth over $100 from A. F. Sturman; $200 to answer in Circuit Court.

THE INJUNCTION AGAINST THE CITY STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.—The construction of street railways is a matter in which all of our citizens are deeply interested, and an improvement which will result to the benefit of the city. In nearly every city of any size in the Union street railroads have been established for a long time, and have in every instance proved great convenience. At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed incorporating the "Louisville City Railway Company," and allowing them the privilege to run roads through certain streets of the city. This company entered into a contract with the city for the building of the roads, giving bonds in $20,000 for the commencement of the roads in a specified time. In accordance with this contract, a few days since ground was broken at the corner of Main and Twelfth streets, and the great work commenced. As has already been mentioned in the Democrat, the Louisville and Portland Railroad Company filed an injunction against the City Street Railway Company. The injunction was argued before Judge Pirtle yesterday, by Messrs. Speed and Bennett for the Street Railroad Company, and Charles Clegg for the Louisville and Portland Railroad Company. Judge Pirtle has taken the matter under advisement, and will render his decision in a few days. The matter is one of great interest, and we will give the decision in full when it is rendered.

SELLING LIQUOR TO SOLDIERS.—There are still some proprietors of saloons who persist in selling liquor to soldiers, notwithstanding the order of the Commander of the Post. Yes, to John McDonald, who keeps a saloon at the corner of Seventh and Water streets, was arrested. This same man was arrested some time since on the same charge, and was let off on promise not to sell to soldiers in the future. This being his second offense, Capt. Jouett, Provost Marshal, sent him to the military prison for five days and confiscated his entire stock of liquor.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—Yesterday afternoon a man by the name of John Henderson went into the Broadway House, at the corner of Ninth and Broadway, and without any provocation commenced an attack upon a citizen, which was resisted, and a scuffle ensued, in which the latter was severely hurt. Henderson was arrested and will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

PARKMAN.—Within this month we have been compelled to record several items under the above caption. A dispatch was received in this city yesterday stating that Jos. Brown, of this city, who had been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to two years, had been pardoned by the Governor.

COURT MARCHAL.—In this court yesterday no hearing was transacted. We learn that Capt. W. C. Weller, the Judge Advocate, has been relieved, and that he will shortly report to his regiment. We were unable to learn what cases would be before the court to-day.

Gen. Smith, from Chattanooga, and Gen. Milroy, recently commanding in Western Virginia, arrived in this city Sunday. Both were guests of the Galt House.

The Nashville train arrived on time last evening. All was quiet along the line, no guerrillas being seen or heard of.

TOBACCO PREMIUM.—Mr. Wm. H. Critcher, the extensive and popular dealer in tobacco, &c., has shown us a very beautiful and costly fruit basket which he offers as a premium for the second best hogshead of tobacco, without regard to classification, to be exhibited by a lady at the great tobacco fair to be held here on the first of June. We hope numerous ladies who are engaged in tobacco culture will be applicants not only for this rich premium, but for the other rich prizes, all or nearly all payable in gold.

The fruit basket consists of silver open work, artistically constructed in an oval form, lined with a dish of richly colored Bohemian glass, the whole resting upon a graceful embossed pedestal of silver. Four silver chains are pendant from four lamb-heads which rise from the sides, and the edges are fringed with silver open work of great beauty.

Mr. Critcher deserves great praise for the public spirit which he has manifested by this offer, tending not only to the encouragement of agriculture, but of art.

NEW POST COMMANDER.—We understand that Lieut. Col. T. B. Farleigh, of the Twenty-sixth Kentucky, will to-day assume command of this post vice Col. S. D. Bruce, who is ordered to the front. Col. Bruce, during the time that he has commanded the post, has by his gentlemanly and courteous bearing towards all made friends of hosts, who will hear of his departure with regret. Col. Farleigh, the new commander, is a gallant soldier and courteous gentleman, and will no doubt make an excellent officer. We give him a hearty welcome to his new position and wish him a prosperous command.

Particular List of Wounded Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois Troops in the Skirmishes made by Sherman's Command.

George W. Moore, F. 4th Indiana, right foot.

J. H. Rust, 2d Michigan, head, slight.

Charles McDowell, C. 3d Kentucky, thigh, fractured, severe.

Donald R. Cook, F. 27th Illinois, arm and breast, flesh.

Wm. Bowman, E. 3d Kentucky, arm and breast.

N. B. Price, I. 2d Kentucky, hip, flesh.

Richard Arbury, F. 60th Illinois, leg, slight.

James Clark, R. 10th Illinois, both fingers, amputated.

H. Bullat, Lieut. Col. 3d Kentucky, right side, right arm, right leg.

Charles J. Jennings, F. 51st Indiana, arm, flesh.

John Keeler, C. 2d Illinois, arm, flesh.

Wm. Toler, A. 6th Illinois, foot, slightly.

J. H. Stough, F. 27th Illinois, arm, flesh.

J. F. Payne, E. 3d Kentucky, hand, slight.

Sergeant John C. Jarvis, C. 3d Kentucky, shoulder.

Addison Morefield, C. 3d Kentucky, leg, bruised.

Arthur Arnett, F. 70th Illinois, foot, flesh.

James Brastow, Capt. E. 3d Kentucky, head, flesh.

Abraham Ard, E. 3d Kentucky, breast.

Corporal Aaron Haggard, G. 7th Illinois, right arm.

James Tramlinger, D. 3d Kentucky, hand, fracture.

George Estinger, D. 2d Kentucky, scalp, slight.

James Koger, D. 2d Kentucky, hand, fractured.

Corporal Sylvester Cravins, A. 3d Kentucky, foot, fractured.

James Tramlinger, D. 3d Kentucky, head, fracture.

George McDowell, C. 3d Kentucky, head, slight.

Francis M. Sumner, D. 70th Illinois, bruised.

John H. Reid, D. 39th Ind., leg, flesh.

Wm. M. Simpson, E. 2d Kentucky, leg, flesh.

James M. Brastow, Capt. E. 3d Kentucky, hip, flesh.

George McDowell, H. 2d Kentucky, head, flesh.

James W. Wright, D. 30th Ind., leg, flesh.

John Sanders, B. 84th Ind., foot, fracture.

John Roberts, A. 84th Ind., thorax, fracture.

Corporal Robert McEachern, B. 84th Ind., hip, flesh.

William Henry, R. 20th Ind., knee joint, compound fracture, amputation of leg and one thumb.

John Stough, F. 27th Illinois, thigh, flesh.

Reuben Myers, A. 20th Ind., shoulder, flesh.

John H. Reid, D. 39th Ind., leg, flesh.

Wm. M. Simpson, E. 2d Kentucky, leg, flesh.

James Merrill, F. 10th Illinois, leg, flesh.

John W. Jennings, E. 27th Illinois, leg, flesh.

John Sanders, B. 84th Ind., foot, fracture.

John B. Goring, E. 9th Ind., toe, fracture, amputation.

James A. Oaks, A. 84th Ind., head, flesh.

John S. Goss, C. 27th Illinois, head, flesh.

James Goss, D. 27th Illinois, head, fracture.

James Goss, D. 27th Illinois, head, flesh.

